THE DANGERS OF CHOCOLATE TO DOGS

What to Do if Your Dog Eats Chocolate

Chocolate is toxic to dogs and depending on the type and amount of chocolate consumed and the weight of your dog, it could cause a serious medical emergency. If you know your dog has eaten chocolate, it's important to monitor him for signs of toxicity (

Learn how much is too much, which types of chocolate are the most dangerous, and what signs to look for that may signal your dog needs treatment.

Why Chocolate is Toxic to Dogs

Chocolate contains both theobromine and caffeine, both of which can speed the heart rate and stimulate the nervous system of dogs. The risk of your dog becoming sick from ingesting chocolate depends on the type and amount of chocolate consumed and the weight of the dog .

Here are a few types of chocolate listed in order of theobromine content:

1. Cocoa powder (most toxic)
2. Unsweetened baker's chocolate
3. Semisweet chocolate
4. Dark chocolate
5. Milk chocolate

Knowing how much and what kind of chocolate your dog ate can help you and your vet determine if you have an emergency. In general, mild symptoms of chocolate toxicity occur when a dog consumes 20 mg of methylxanthines per kilogram of body weight. Cardiac symptoms of chocolate toxicity occur around 40 to 50 mg/kg, and seizures occur at dosages greater than 60 mg/kg.

In simpler terms, that means a very concerning dose of chocolate is approximately one ounce of milk chocolate per pound of body weight. Since an average chocolate bar is 1.55 ounces, consuming even one chocolate bar can have serious consequences, especially for small dogs. Eating a crumb of chocolate cake or a very small piece of a chocolate bar, on the other hand, probably won't kill your dog, especially if it is a larger breed, but chocolate should never be fed as a treat.

What are the Signs of Chocolate Poisoning?

Signs of chocolate poisoning usually appear within 6 to 12 hours after your dog has eaten it, may last up to 72 hours, and include the following:

- Vomiting
- Diarrhea
- Restlessness
- Increased urination
- Tremors
- Elevated or abnormal heart rate
- Seizures
- Collapse and death

Note: Older dogs and dogs with heart conditions are more at risk of sudden death from chocolate poisoning.

What to Do If Your Dog Ate Chocolate

If you believe your dog ate chocolate, call your veterinarian immediately. Based on your dog's size and the amount and type of chocolate consumed, your veterinarian may recommend that you simply monitor your dog for the clinical signs listed above and call back if his condition worsens.

In other cases, the veterinarian may prefer you bring the dog into the clinic. If your pet consumed the chocolate less than two hours ago, your veterinarian may induce vomiting and give him several doses of activated charcoal, which works to move the toxins out of the body without being absorbed into the bloodstream. For more severe cases, veterinary intervention may be needed to provide supplemental treatment, such as medications or IV fluids, to resolve the effects of the poisoning. Dogs suffering from seizures may need to be monitored at the clinic overnight.

How to Prevent Your Dog from Eating Chocolate

Even though small amounts of milk chocolate may not cause a problem in larger dogs, it's still not recommended that pet owners offer their dog chocolate as a treat. To prevent your dog from sneaking chocolate, follow these tips:

Put it away: Make sure all chocolate items, including cocoa powder and hot chocolate mix, are stored where the dog cannot reach them, such as on a high shelf in a closed-door pantry. Remind your children and guests that chocolate should be kept out of the dog's reach and not left on the kitchen counters, tables, or in purses. Keep this in mind during the holidays, too, making sure to place Easter baskets, for example, in a place where a dog cannot get to them.

keep your dog safe!

We will be working on the fitpaws equipment and the beds, to help the dogs stay FOCUSED!

it's so challenging for your dog to stay focused on you when there are other distractions in life!

Have you ever wondered why I have focused and relaxed dogs!
Well here's the thing, I work my dogs on the fitpaws as much as I can.

This is a game changer for any dog.

You will have amazing results with this we will help your dog stay focused on you for a lot longer the results are endless!

Mental games

calmer

weight loss

Plus if your dog is in pain or stiff they can become grumpy!

but you will have to stick with it to get the best results

it takes time for your dog to adjust to the equipment.

this is why we run this workshop for 3 months.

We will have to limit numbers on this activity to 4 dogs per teacher. If you would like to join any of these groups in agility/scurry/flyball just ask and we will help you.

If you would like to start an hour class, we will find a class to suit you, it's just the best way to further your dogs sporting skills and for you to have some fun!

If you have fun the dog will have fun!

I love nothing better than spending quality time working my dogs in any of these dog sports, it's so much fun I just get such a buzz working with my dogs, when it all comes together! But sometimes it does not come together so I have to work on building the layers and working on their confidence until we can do it. That is what training is all about!

Please remember that all sports training takes time to teach your dog so please be patient!

Teaching Kids To Interact Safely With Dogs

Kids have a natural curiosity about dogs, but recent statistics show that children under 9 years of age are the group most affected by dog bites and strikes. So what is being done to reduce dog bite incidents involving children and teach them to understand dog behaviour and interact safely with them?

The Safe and Sound course will only take about 30 minutes you will learn the do's and don'ts and how to talk your dog! Once you have completed the Safe and Sound course you will go on to learn dog awareness skills in the junior handlers skills121 course This will set you up for life around dogs. We will be teaching hand signals and commands for sits, downs, stays, waits and taking food nicely and on command.

What will I learn...

- We will be teaching children how to behave around dogs.
 - We will teach you how to stay safe around dogs.
 - We will teach you how to speak dogs.
